PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Industrial Engineer with experience across SaaS product operations, pricing and revenue analysis, logistics, process improvement, and hands-on data automation projects. Since leaving PriceLabs in June 2025, I have built practical software tools for reporting, document workflows, market intelligence, QA/QC traceability, and operational dashboards using Python, SQL, React, TypeScript, FastAPI, PostgreSQL/PostGIS, SQLite, and AI-assisted extraction workflows. I work best at the intersection of business operations, data, and software: understanding messy real-world processes, turning them into structured workflows, and delivering tools that improve speed, visibility, and decision-making.

TARGET ROLES

Implementation Consultant | Solutions Consultant | Revenue Operations Analyst | Product Operations Analyst | BI/Data Analyst | Technical Product Specialist

CORE SKILLS

- Operations and process improvement: workflow mapping, KPI analysis, QA/QC, documentation systems, continuous improvement, stakeholder coordination.
- Data and automation: SQL, Python, Excel, Google Sheets, ETL, web scraping, OCR, PDF/DOCX automation, validation pipelines, dashboards.
- Product and SaaS: product troubleshooting, pricing analysis, revenue management, market research, customer enablement, remote cross-functional work.
- Web and systems: React, TypeScript, Next.js, FastAPI, REST APIs, PostgreSQL/PostGIS, SQLite, Streamlit, Git/GitHub, basic testing workflows.
- Languages: Spanish native, English C2, Portuguese C1.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Independent Operations & Data Automation Projects | Self-employed | Remote, Spain | July 2025 - Present

- Built a local-first inspection report generation platform with React, TypeScript, FastAPI, structured project records, uploads, image annotation, OCR, DOCX generation, catalog backup workflows, and map/geocoding support.
- Developed a real-estate pricing intelligence MVP for the Venezuelan market with multi-source scraping, ETL normalization, PostgreSQL/PostGIS storage, deduplication, freshness and confidence metrics, dashboards, and daily/weekly reporting.
- Automated QA/QC documentation workflows by generating a master document index from Excel/PDF sources, normalizing catalogs, identifying coverage gaps and anomalies, and producing traceable Excel deliverables.
- Built data extraction and validation pipelines for industrial equipment information, including PDF indexing, SQLite databases, staged extraction, QA approval scripts, and dashboard-style review workflows.
